Effective Date: January 1, 2026

1. PURPOSE

This document provides a high-level overview of selected employee benefits. Official plan documents and applicable terms govern where a conflict exists.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- 2.1 Benefit eligibility depends on employment classification, length of service, and the specific benefit plan.
- 2.2 Employees should confirm eligibility with Human Resources.

3. HEALTH BENEFITS

- 3.1 Eligible full-time employees may participate in the company health plan subject to plan terms.
- 3.2 Enrollment must normally occur during the initial eligibility window or an approved enrollment period.
- 3.3 Changes outside the standard enrollment period may require a qualifying life event.

4. DENTAL AND VISION

Eligible employees may participate in dental and vision programs according to the applicable plan documents and enrollment rules.

5. RETIREMENT PLAN

- 5.1 Eligible employees may participate in the company retirement savings plan.
- 5.2 Employee contributions and any company matching contribution are subject to the plan's current terms.

6. LIFE AND DISABILITY BENEFITS

Eligible employees may receive or enroll in life and disability coverage subject to the applicable plan documents.

7. BENEFIT CHANGES

- 7.1 Employees must report changes that may affect dependent or benefit eligibility.
- 7.2 Employees are responsible for reviewing enrollment selections and keeping required information current.

8. LEAVE AND BENEFITS

Some employee benefits may continue during approved leave subject to the applicable plan and leave rules.

9. BENEFIT QUESTIONS

Employees should contact Human Resources or the plan administrator for eligibility, enrollment, claims, and coverage questions.

10. IMPORTANT LIMITATION

This overview is informational. It does not replace official insurance certificates, retirement-plan documents, or other governing plan materials.
